Council's £25k boost for recession advisers

Youngsters boxing clever

CHILDREN will be helping birds shelter from the bitter winter weather after picking up tips from an expert. Youngsters at Coupals Primary School, Haverhill, were given a lesson in how to build bird boxes by park ranger Dave Bax, from the East Town Park. The session was one of the school's enrichment afternoons. Now the children are planning to put their skills into practice. Teaching assistant Sandra Linnane said: "We will be building bird boxes in design and technology to hang out around the school. "At the foundation stage, the children have also been part of the RSPB's Birdwatch. They have recorded which birds come into the school and sent off the results to the RSPB."

GROUPS offering vital support to Haverhill residents hit by the economic crisis will be boosted by £25,000 in extra council funding.

Haverhill Town Council has decided to give cash to organisations offering financial advice and debt counselling as the town wrestles with a devastating series of redundancy warnings.

But the council opted not to fund the cash injection by increasing council tax, instead choosing to freeze its precept for next year at current levels.

That will mean the portion of council tax taken by the council remains at £75.34 a year for an average band D property.

Cllr Les Ager, mayor of Haverhill, said: "We tried to keep council tax without an increase to help people who are suffering. This was a unanimous decision taken by all councillors.

"And the extra funding is about making contingency plans to help people if they are in need."

Hundreds of jobs in Haverhill are under threat.

Vion Food Group said last month that up to 470 jobs at its Little Wratting site could be axed.

And last year, there were warnings that a total of 88 jobs could go at Becker

Acroma and Titon.

The council has not yet decided which organisations will benefit from the extra funding.

The council's general grants budget will provide £5,000 of the cash, while £20,000 will come from the town centre opportunity fund.

The town council's tax decision came as St Edmundsbury Borough Council also announced plans to freeze its council tax precept – keeping it at £171.99 a year for a band D property.

The amount charged by Suffolk County Council is likely to go up by 2.45 per cent.

Borough council officers note in papers for the budget meeting on February 11 that: "St Edmundsbury is financially secure, as a result of many years of prudent financial management."

The council plans to invest an extra £1.88 million next year, covered by savings of £1.19 million and cash from reserves.

The savings include an increase of £140,000 in rent from the Haverhill cinema site, now in its first year of use.

There will also be grant cuts for Haverhill Arts Centre and for Abbeycroft Leisure, which runs Haverhill Leisure Centre.

The arts centre will see its grant decrease by £12,200, while the decrease for Abbeycroft will be £27,000.

Throw yourself into hospice fundraising

DARING fundraisers will plummet on a 160ft bungee jump to raise cash for our St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal.

Anyone who wants to sample the thrill of a jump – and the thrill of raising money for a good cause – can still sign up for the event on the weekend of February 14 and 15 at Bury St Edmunds Rugby Club.

Jumpers, who must be aged 14 or above, need to raise at least £100 in sponsorship. All money raised by participants from the Haverhill area will go straight to our appeal.

The campaign, which has a target of £40,000, aims to help patients in the Haverhill area receive services in their own homes, rather than travelling to the hospice in Bury.

Around 80 people are already signed up for the jump, which will be organised by the UK Bungee Club.

Michelle Gray, the hospice's senior fundraising manager, said: "We've had a lot of interest from students at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College, and Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College.

"Anyone who takes part can expect to launch themselves off a 160ft-high platform.

"It should be a really exciting day. We haven't had a bungee jump in the area for a very long time, so the interest has been huge."

One person who can vouch for the joy of bungee jumping is Abby Hunt, the hospice's corporate fundraiser. Michelle said: "Abby did a bungee jump in New Zealand. She enjoyed it so much that she will be doing it again in Bury."

Jumpers aged 14 and 15 will need parental consent. All participants will get a full safety briefing first.

A £20 registration fee is required. Anyone who raises more than £125 in sponsorship will be given a special T-shirt.

Participants can turn up on the day, but may have to wait for a turn.

The event will run from 11am to 4pm on each day. To sign up, call the hospice on (01284) 747624.

Thanks to the generosity of our readers, businesses and other local organisations and fundraisers, the total for our appeal now exceeds £30,000. But we still need to raise the final £10,000 to achieve our goal.

Anyone interested in supporting the cause, or anyone who is organising an appeal fundraising event and wants us to publicise it for them, can call (01284) 747613.

Car damage: girls reported

A 16-YEAR-OLD girl could be prosecuted after seven cars were found damaged. Suffolk police say the girl, from Haverhill, has been "reported for consideration of prosecution for criminal damage" following the incident in Haverhill town centre.

A 15-year-old girl from Haverhill was also reported for the offences.

The damage to the cars took place over the weekend of January 16 to 18.

Theft of oil

OIL thieves forced their way into a business before breaking into a tanker.

The theft took place in the yard of industrial premises in Helions Bumpstead Road, Haverhill, between 5.45pm and 5.55pm on Wednesday, January 28. The thieves forced locks, then broke into an oil tanker.

Anyone with information should call Pc Guy Ainsworth at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Chemist bid

TESCO has applied for permission to open a pharmacy at its forthcoming Haverhill store.

The plans for the new store went before Haverhill Town Council's planning committee on Tuesday. The pharmacy would be open for at least 100 hours a week at the Station Road store.

Care appeal

VOLUNTEER fundraisers are needed to help patients needing end-of-life care.

Marie Curie is holding a collection for its daffodil appeal in Haverhill town centre on March 7.

On average, a Marie Curie collector raises £60 in just two hours – enough to fund three hours of nursing care for a patient at home. For more information, call (01284) 747385 or email angela.bussey@mariecurie.org.uk

How can you help us hit the £40,000 target?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible. If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause? A special bank account has been set up at Barclays. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842. An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text.

You can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or at the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Brrr-illiant fun for pupils but tougher on motorists

HEAVY snow left Haverhill's children delighted as their schools closed – but drivers faced treacherous conditions.

All 11 of the town's schools closed on Monday, meaning children were free to enjoy the snow for the day. But they all reopened on Tuesday.

Snow in West Suffolk was reported to be the heaviest in the county, with up to six inches falling.

A Suffolk County Council spokesman said gritters had been out in force, with vehicles in the Haverhill area fitted with snow ploughs for the first time in years.

Police warned drivers to take extra care and be prepared. They advised motorists only to undertake necessary journeys, and to take a fully charged mobile phone, emergency clothing, a shovel and warm drinks.

The snowstorm was the most severe to hit southern England for 18 years.

Marian Merch-Chammon, PA to the headteacher at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College, said: "Everybody made it back on Tuesday and everything worked well. We got information to everybody very early that we were going to close on Monday.

"The decision was made because of the transport difficulties for pupils who live in villages, as well as teachers coming from outside Haverhill.

"I've been working for 15 years and I can't remember the last time we lost a day to snow."

In Haverhill town centre, figures on the top of St Mary's Church were given a snowy coating.

Linton Zoo was closed to visitors because of the snow – but that made little difference to one animal.

Katinka, a three-year-old Amur tiger, was enjoying her first ever chance to roll around in some proper snow.

The conditions also went down well with the zoo's snow leopards.

Keepers made sure that all animals had extra bedding to keep them warm, along with fresh water supplies.

Haverhill Rovers' game against Needham Market in the Ridgeons League, Premier Division, on Tuesday was postponed because of the weather.

Healthy food drive aids world's poorest

SCHOOL pupils enjoyed a tasty meal while helping children in some of the world's poorest countries.

Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College took part in The Really Good School Dinner campaign.

The project is a partnership between the School Food Trust, the organisation set up by the Department for Children, Schools and Families to improve school food across England, and the UN World Food Programme (WFP). The aim of the campaign was to encourage more pupils to try school food and to raise money to give children in some of the poorest countries in the developing world a school meal.

During the campaign week, the school asked every pupil eating a healthy school meal to donate 10p. The money raised by Samuel Ward pupils will pay for 610 school meals in poorer countries.

Helen Jones, assistant headteacher, said: "This initiative has not only helped poorer people, but has helped our students engage with some key international issues."

Special delivery of paperboy's bicycle

TWO teenagers have managed to get a stolen bike back for a distraught paperboy.

Toby Cook, 14, who is autistic, was delivering copies of our sister paper, the Cambridge News, when his beloved new bike, given to him by his parents as a Christmas present, was stolen, leaving him distraught.

After the Weekly News carried the story of the theft last week, we received calls from generous readers who wanted to donate cash to buy Toby a new bike.

And Press Relief, the charity run by the Cambridge News, was all set to give Toby a replacement machine in conjunction with Townsend Light Blue Bicycle Centre in Chesterton Road, Cambridge.

Also, we received a call from Steve Johnston of JPS Cycles in East Road, Cambridge, who wanted to give the lad a bicycle.

Even police in Haverhill had offered to give him a replacement.

But when we called last week to ask his father, Trevor, 57, of Arrendene Road, Haverhill, if he would accept the kind offers, the two youths were already at his home returning the bike.

He said: "They are in the house now with Toby's bike. They said they got it off the person who received it from those who stole it."

"I have given the boys a reward of £10 each. It was very good of them."

Shaun Hunsdon, 16, and his friend Callum Slater, 15, pupils at Samuel Ward School, said they were just pleased they could return the bike.

Shaun said: "We read about it in the paper and the bit where Toby tells his dad he's

"We found out who had the bike and they said they didn't realise it was taken from an autistic boy and asked us to return it."

Mr Cook told the Weekly News: "The response from people has been magic.

"It's touching to know that people out there really care."

The cycle, a Silver Fox which cost £240, was taken from Shadowbush Close at about 4.30pm on Friday, January 23.

Police are still investigating the incident.

Less racism in schools

THE number of racist incidents in Suffolk's schools has fallen – but education chiefs say there is no room for complacency in tackling the problem.

For the last academic year, from September 2007 to July 2008, there were 579 racist incidents in 146 schools.

The majority involved verbal abuse.

That figure was down from 601 incidents in 2006/2007 reported from 153 schools.

But it is higher than in 2005/6 when 433 incidents were reported from 125 schools.

Patricia O'Brien, the county council's portfolio holder for children, schools and young people's services, said: "We welcome the efforts schools are making in reporting incidents and working with pupils to increase awareness.

"We are pleased the trend is down, having risen last year, but there is no room for complacency.

"We will continue to work with schools to tackle racism and to adhere to the zero-tolerance approach we have already followed for a number of years here in Suffolk."

She said it was important that children were willing to report incidents and that teachers were sensitive to them.

Find out about apprenticeships

ADVISERS aim to help residents learn more about work-based learning.

West Suffolk College will be holding an apprenticeships open day during Apprenticeships Week, February 23 to 27, and sending work-based-learning advisers out into the surrounding area.

The open day will take place at the main Bury St Edmunds campus on Wednesday, February 25, from 10am to 7pm.

Work-based-learning advisers will also talk to potential apprentices and employers at the Haverhill Learning Shop, in High Street, on Friday, February 27, from 10am to 4pm.

An apprenticeship offers the opportunity to earn while you learn.

For details, call the information centre on (01284) 716333 or visit the college website at www.westsuffolk.ac.uk

Appeal for bone marrow donors

■ DIFFERENCE . . . you could help a child like Sorrel Mason by joining the bone marrow donors' register.

CP.

BY John Morgan

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE family of a toddler who made an amazing recovery from leukaemia after being given a bone marrow transplant are helping to recruit more donors.

Four-year-old Sorrel Mason is now enjoying a happy and healthy life at home in Great Wrating.

But two years ago, life looked bleak for her as she battled AML leukaemia. She had to undergo a life-saving transplant operation using umbilical cord cells from Japan, as a living donor could not be found.

Now her father, Robert Mason, is urging donors to come forward and attend an Anthony Nolan Trust recruitment session at the Clements Surgery on Greenfield Way, Haverhill, on Thursday, February 19.

Mr Mason, 40, said: "If you could see the difference it has made to Sorrel's life, you would know without a shadow of a doubt that this is a worthwhile thing to do."

While Mr Mason says it looks like Sorrel has beaten leukaemia, she will not be given the official all-clear for another five years.

Mr Mason, who has signed up to the register himself, said: "We're hoping to give a bit back. We've been helped by so many organisations."

"There are around 16,000 people out there who need bone marrow transplants but can't find a donor:

"It is a very easy thing to do. You basically give a blood sample and go on to a database. If you are needed in 10 or 20 years, they can call you for further tests."

"You could save someone's life."

Sorrel is now enjoying a happy home life with dad, mum Samantha and sister Daisy.

Debby Jepps, of the Anthony Nolan Trust, said: "We are delighted to be working together with Mr Mason and his family and are extremely grateful for their help and support in our life-saving work."

The recruitment session will run between 4pm and 7pm.

To join the Anthony Nolan register, you must be aged 18 to 40, be in good health, weigh more than eight stone (51kg), not be severely overweight and be willing to donate to any patient you may ever match.

Once you have joined, you will remain on the register until your 60th birthday.

For more information, contact the Anthony Nolan Trust at www.anthonynolan.org.uk or call (020) 72841234.

Learn to bike safely

MOTORCYCLISTS are being urged to sign up to a course to improve their skills in a bid to decrease the number of road deaths.

Suffolk police, in conjunction with the county council, is running a series of Bikesafe workshops aimed at all riders who want to become safer motorists.

In 2008, seven motorcyclists were killed – representing 23 per cent of the total number of road deaths in Suffolk last year.

The series of workshops starts on Friday, March 27.

Pc Kevin Stark, from the roads policing unit, said: "No matter how experienced or careful you are, advanced rider training will improve the way in which you ride and increase your chances of avoiding a crash or collision."

Details about the course can be found at www.suffolk.police.uk

When it comes to travel protection - it pays to check the small print, says local travel expert

Travel customers should take care to read the small print when it comes to financial protection for their holidays, says Kedington based local travel expert Jennifer Bradnam. Currently there are a number of advertising campaigns on the issue of travel protection on the TV and in the press, offering various degrees of protection for the customer.

But Jennifer, who works for award winning travel company Travel Counsellors, argues that customers should receive all-encompassing travel protection for any arrangements they want to make, not just ATOL protection for package holidays, or protection that only applies up to a certain value or during a specific time frame. ABTA also no longer guarantees financial protection.

It follows the collapse of companies such as XL Leisure Group and Zoom Airways at the end of last year, which saw thousands of passengers lose their money due to lack of financial protection when booking their holidays whereas all Travel Counsellors customers not only received their money back, but benefited from having their own personal travel expert putting in place alternative travel arrangements for them.

The protection offered by Travel Counsellors through the Travel Counsellors Trust Fund since 2004 is completely free of charge and covers anything booked through Jennifer including hotels, low cost airlines, scheduled flights and car rental. It covers all bookings irrespective of when they were made, departure date or value, and is not guaranteed for only a limited period of time.

Commenting on the issue Jennifer says: "I am delighted that other travel companies at last seem to be taking the issue of financial protection seriously. But I am still concerned that many customers will need to read the small print to see whether they are covered or not."

"With the current economic climate people want complete reassurance, not to be having to check the small print for terms and conditions. It's fantastic that I can tell my customers that everything they book through me is 100% financially protected absolutely free of charge."

Travel Counsellors points out that the Civil Aviation Authority's ATOL scheme provides excellent protection but only if the holiday bought is actually ATOL protected. ATOL is not all-encompassing as it only covers charter flights, air package holidays and scheduled flights booked through a consolidator. Many customers require tailor made travel arrangements which may not be covered by ATOL protection.

To speak to Jennifer to find out more about complete financial protection or for any other travel requirements telephone 0845 058 7976 or e-mail jennifer.bradnam@travelcounsellors.com

'Keep it local' call from campaigners

RESIDENTS and businesses are calling on the Government to "keep it local" with its shake-up of councils in Suffolk.

A survey of West Suffolk residents has found 60 per cent want a dedicated unitary council for their area, while Haverhill Chamber of Commerce has backed a petition on the 10 Downing Street website calling for a local council.

The Boundary Committee is consulting on a proposal to split the county into two unitary authorities, one for a greater Ipswich area to be called North Haven and another for rural Suffolk. Another Boundary Committee option is for "one Suffolk" – a giant unitary authority covering 700,000 people.

But many believe a three council solution – with East Suffolk, West Suffolk and North Haven local authorities – would keep councillors closer to residents.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council, Forest Heath District Council and Waveney District Council have criticised the Boundary Commission for "refusing to consult" residents on their preferred option.

An independent poll commissioned by the three councils found 60 per cent of residents in their areas also preferred the three council option.

Cllr Les Ager, Mayor of Haverhill and a member of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, said: "I think that is the best option. It is important to keep it local."

"No one knows where the headquarters would be if it is just the one."

"But if there was a West Suffolk, you would assume it would be based in Bury, which Haverhill residents would be used to dealing with."

The Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government, Hazel Blears, is set to make the final decision.

Unitary councils would offer a single tier of local government providing all services for residents.

Under the current system, district councils provide services such as rubbish collection and leisure, while the county council provides education and maintains roads.

Meanwhile Sarah Howard, chairman of Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, has backed a petition calling on the Government to set up three councils in order to "promote prosperity, protect local employment, and improve vital local services in Suffolk".

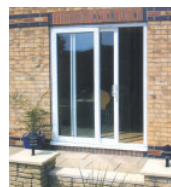

Ms Howard said: "This is an issue that will have an effect on businesses in Haverhill."

"As a Chamber of Commerce it is our responsibility to represent the views of our members and to act as a voice for local businesses."

The online petition notes that "one size does not fit all", arguing that "West Suffolk is inextricably linked to the Cambridge sub-region which has very different economic priorities to the areas around Lowestoft and Ipswich".

The petition is available at <http://petitions.number10.gov.uk/bestforsuffolk/>

"Customers really love our ladies' day and evening shoes as well as our fantastic range of boots, and our men's smart and casual shoes are also very popular.

Tips on beating heart disease

STAFF from West Suffolk Hospital will be helping to save lives by supporting the British Heart Foundation's Red for Heart campaign during National Heart Month.

The cardiology team will be handing out advice in the hospital's main reception on Monday between 10am and 1pm.

Anyone is welcome to drop by to get their blood pressure and pulse checked while picking up tips on reducing the risk of heart disease.

Melanie Amps, cardiology nurse specialist at the hospital, said: "We want to do all that we can to raise awareness of the steps which people can take to reduce their risk as well as highlighting the importance of recognising early symptoms of the disease."

Anyone interested in making a donation or volunteering for the charity should contact Brenda Claburn, fundraising and volunteer manager, on (01953) 450210.

Sweeping advice for chimneys

FIRE chiefs have issued a safety leaflet which gives basic tips to help prevent chimney fires.

Suffolk Fire and Rescue Service has produced the advice for households using open fires or solid-fuel-burning stoves.

Chimney fires are one of the most common types of blaze in homes and can easily spread, especially in thatched cottages. Many of these fires can be prevented by regularly sweeping the chimney. Chimneys using coal or smokeless fuel should be swept at least once a year and those using wood should be swept quarterly, when in use.

For a leaflet or a home safety check, call (01473) 260586.

Groups join forces to help jobless

A LEARNING shop will hold a meeting for all agencies that can offer free help to the unemployed.

Haverhill Learning Shop will hold the event at Castle Manor School on Wednesday, February 18, at 9.30am.

Barbara Adshead, centre manager, said: "We have had so many people coming into the Learning Shop for help. We know of lots of help agencies in the town and we want to ensure that everyone knows what advice and guidance is out there."

"This is not a meeting for individuals, but for groups and agencies who would like to publicise their services to local people."

"I have already had support from local councillors, Food Bank and the town centre manager."

The aim is to work together to produce a guide to the different resources and services available.

Barbara said: "I am calling on everyone who, like us, is dealing with unemployed people every day and wants to ensure that they receive the best help that they can. Haverhill Learning Shop is being asked for help with CV writing, job applications and training advice all day long."

Organisations who would like to attend the meeting should contact Barbara at the Learning Shop on (01440) 712177. Or they can email haverhill@wsc.ac.uk

County is one of the best for quality of life

SUFFOLK is in the top 10 in a league table ranking England's counties on the quality of life, according to a new survey.

The results, published in the most recent issue of Country Life magazine, puts Suffolk in ninth position out of 40.

Devon is in first place, followed by Hampshire, while bottom of the league is East Yorkshire, which has dropped from seventh place in 2003 to last in the rankings.

Each county was assessed on the quality of its health services, green policy, schools, social fabric, heritage, landscape and wildlife, along with pubs, restaurants, local food and number of sunshine hours.

The number of village greens, quality of light and tranquillity, and the number of residents in Who's Who were also taken into account.

Country Life used statistics supplied by sources including the Council for the Protection of Rural England, the Met Office, Defra, Natural England and local authorities.

Councillors agree to forfeit 2.7% pay rise

BY Jack Grove

Email: weeklies@cambridge-news.co.uk

COUNTY councillors have agreed to freeze their pay until 2010 as part of a drive to save money.

As Cambridgeshire County Council announced efficiency savings worth £16 million in last week's budget, the leaders of all political parties said their members would not take a 2.7 per cent increase in their annual allowance.

The move will save taxpayers around £20,000 between the council's 69 representatives, who receive £7,610 as a basic allowance.

Although the saving is tiny compared to the overall budget of about £570 million, the politicians said they believed they should lead by example.

Council leader Cllr Jill Tuck, who proposed the freeze, said: "This budget is a people-driven one and we're very mindful of what's going on in the economy."

"It's something we've decided as a group and everyone

■ 'GESTURE OF SOLIDARITY' ... Cllrs Jill Tuck, Nichola Harrison and Paul Sales.

was completely behind it."

Cllr Nichola Harrison, Liberal Democrat spokeswoman for resources, said: "In terms of the council's budget, it is only a very small amount of money, but we should make a gesture of solidarity with the people of Cambridgeshire."

"As county councillors, we are not well paid. It is minimal for the amount of work we do."

"But times are hard and some people don't even have a job, so it would not be right for politicians to get a pay rise at this time."

The move follows the lead of Barack Obama, who imposed a pay freeze for White House staff earning more than $100,000 a year in one of his first presidential orders.

BBC director general Mark Thompson has also frozen pay for senior corporation staff and celebrities until next year.

County councillors receive a basic annual allowance, plus expenses, as well as top-up allowances for special roles requiring extra work.

Cllr Tuck picks up £22,246, deputy leader Cllr Mac Maguire receives £16,685 and cabinet members receive between £14,460 and £8,898.

Cllr David Jenkins receives £12,182 as Liberal Democrat leader and Cllr Paul Sales picks up £5,927 as Labour leader.

Cllr Sales agreed with the pay freeze, saying: "We fully support it - it's entirely appropriate in the economic conditions."

"However, we are concerned about the £14 million cuts to disability services over two years."

"It is absolutely disastrous when we have an ageing population and many of them suffering long-term life-limiting illness."

"The council says it will get better value for money."

"What that actually means is agencies that provide residential care will reduce staff levels and employ people with a limited amount of English."

"Care homes are struggling in the current climate and I would not be surprised if some went to the wall, leaving the council with a gross shortage of spaces."

Cuts to mothball school upgrades

PROJECTS to improve outdated classrooms are being shelved due to a £4 million funding crisis.

Major schemes will have to be delayed, scaled down or scrapped, after Cambridgeshire County Council announced plans to cut £3.8 million from its capital building programme.

It blamed the recession, rising construction costs and low Government funding for the "significant pressure" on its budget, which will affect thousands of pupils and teachers in the county.

A report to the council's schools forum admitted: "It has been necessary to take some very difficult decisions either to defer schemes by one or more years, and/or reduce the scale of planned investment and, in a number of cases, take schemes out of the programme."

Ben Slade, principal at Manor Community College in Cambridge's Arbury Road - which has been made a priority for improvement works - said: "That's very bad news for schools."

"The local authority is badly funded by the Government, and to cut such a large amount from a budget that's almost beyond cutting is a worry."

The council revealed it could also face an even bigger financial black hole, if the Government does not stump up cash to help the council tackle an anticipated shortfall of 500 reception places in Cambridge within three years.

The report said: "If the bid is unsuccessful then this will create a further significant pressure on general resources from 2010 onwards."

It added: "Cambridgeshire's settlement was considerably worse than for many other shire authorities ... it is inevitable that cost pressures will outstrip available resources, and that savings will need to be made to close the gap."

Major school projects due to take place in 2009/10 include the extension of Lantern Primary School in Ely, the creation of new facilities for Bellbird Primary School in Sawston, and the Shirley Community Primary and Nursery School in Cambridge.

School's out, but not before time!

BY Stephen Exley

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

HEALTH and safety measures will put an end to the traditional early leaving time at the end of term for pupils and teachers in Cambridgeshire.

Schools have been ordered to put a stop to the tradition of letting pupils go home before normal closing time – because they are responsible for youngsters' safety and welfare for the full day.

The move by Cambridgeshire County Council could cause ill-feeling among staff, a teachers' union has warned.

Geoff Fewtrell, county secretary of the NASUWT union, said: "I think not finishing early at Christmas is a real shame.

"Most secondary schools finish at lunchtime and the staff then have a get-together. It's a nice celebration for staff, and is good for morale.

"This has been going on for years.

■ PROTECTION . . . Ben Slade, principal at Manor Community College, says responsibility for pupils lasts until the end of the day.

"It's a bit of a dead time anyway and this could cause ill feeling among staff."

Concerns have been raised about groups of secondary pupils visiting their former primaries, which usually do not finish early, causing disruption to lessons.

The council also hopes parents will be "reassured" to know their children will be kept safe in school until the standard closing time.

Several headteachers said they had been contacted by the council about the policy.

Ben Slade, principal at Manor Community College in Cambridge, said: "I think the argument is child protection: some students might not have anywhere to go, and our responsibility for them lasts until the end of the school day."

Andrew Hutchinson, executive principal of the Parkside Federation, said staff were expected to work for a set number of hours per year, and said the school's "flexi-time" system for timetabling classes would keep disruption to a minimum.

Cllr David Harty, the Conservative-run council's cabinet member for learning, said: "Schools have been reminded that they are responsible for the safety and welfare of students for the duration of the school day, and that they should not release students early on the last day of term.

"Parents will be reassured to know this is the case, and that the length of every school day will remain the same."

'Cover up slur is wrong'

CAMBRIDGESHIRE'S Chief Constable says there was no cover up over violent crime figures.

Julie Spence said all such crimes were investigated and not "swept under the carpet".

She has defended the way her force records serious violent crimes after it was named as one of several found to have misinterpreted classification guidance.

It was said that police forces were "under-counting" serious violent crimes by downgrading the offences.

latest podcast, Mrs Spence hit back.

She said: "Once again it was reported that Cambridgeshire was among 18 forces which had been asked to recount violent crime figures.

"This was not, as widely suggested, because forces had been trying to make violent crime look less than it was. The confusion came after a national reclassification of the way certain categories of violence were recorded – a matter of ticking the right box.

"In ticking what was apparently the wrong box we had, if anything made the numbers of most serious violent crime look worse than it was.

"The fact is that all violent crime was recorded and investigated. Nothing was swept under the carpet.

"But what I found interesting was how the coverage of the statistical debate followed hard on the heels of other events which also made the headlines.

"A 17-year-old who slashed the face of a 19-year-old to ribbons in Cambridgeshire was jailed for six years.

"A man who raped a woman in our county was jailed for five years, and animal rights protesters who conducted a frightening campaign against Huntingdon Life Sciences and those who had dealings with the company were jailed for up to 11 years.

"There is no link between the cases and neither am I about to make any comparisons or judgments between the sentences.

"The thought which came to me was that the outcomes were all the result of good police work – the rape conviction made possible by our new, dedicated Sexual Investigations Unit.

"And then I wondered whether the public – you – saw them as more or less significant than the columns of dull and often baffling figures, or whether you had actually made any connection between what officers do on a day to day basis and the figures you are actually hearing.

"In their own way, both statistics and the headlines from court, give an indication of the job the police service is doing."

Man denies death threat accusation

A MAN will stand trial after denying aggravated burglary while armed with a machete.

Sami M'Barki, of Connaught Road, Haverhill, appeared at Ipswich Crown Court accused of three separate offences.

M'Barki, 24, is charged with aggravated burglary with intent to inflict grievous bodily harm while armed with a machete.

The incident is alleged to have occurred at an address in Leather Lane, Haverhill, on October 6 last year.

He is also charged with making threats to kill Jason Rawlings and affray, also on October 6.

M'Barki pleaded not guilty to all three offences.

He was later released on bail by Judge John Devaux until February 27, when a preliminary hearing will take place to make arrangements for his trial.

WHAT IS THIS YEARS CHIP WEEK ALL ABOUT?

Running from 9-15 February 2009 National Chip Week is a successful platform to promote chips - which have all the goodness of potatoes and the fact that they can be enjoyed as part of a balanced diet. Last year, over two thirds of fish and chips shops reported an increase in sales during and after the week - and with 10% of GB potatoes going into this sector.

This year the UK's official ambassador for National Chip Week, Keith Chegwin, is calling on fish and chip shops to take part in Britain's chip promotion and register for the "PERFECT PORTION AWARDS". Online at www.lovechips.co.uk.

School promotes links with wider community

A SCHOOL is living up to its name by launching a forum to promote greater links with the community.

Castle Hill Community Middle School held its first community forum meeting last Thursday and will hold one each half term.

Parents, councillors, the Parkway Association and community police have all been invited to participate in the forum. The aim is to discuss school and community issues and to work together to make a difference. Teacher Becky Baldwin, the community cohesion team leader, has conducted a survey into the views held about the school and these will be aired at the meetings. She said: "People who have been into the school recently have been impressed with all the improvements and commented on the friendly staff, calm classrooms and good conditions for learning. "Others in the community feel differently about the school based on their past experiences or rumours they have heard."

"We are inviting the community to be more involved and to utilise the facilities we can offer." The school is working to set up adult education classes and extra-curricular activities for pupils including music lessons, dance, and girls' rugby.

To get involved with the forum contact Mrs Baldwin on (01440) 702716.

Technician's science fiction career is fact

AN AUTHOR is celebrating after three of her novels were published following a decade of trying to get them printed. Susan Gee has lived in Haverhill since 1977 and started writing in 1999 – but the lab technician in the town's Genzyme plant found no joy though publishing houses or agents.

Undeterred by the letters of rejection, her luck took a turn for the better when a friend of a friend approached her about the e-publishing site www.abook2read.com

Now the whole world can download her books under her pen-name of Susan G. Mrs Gee, 53, of Aldham Court, said: "I've always loved science fiction, like Doctor Who and Star Trek, and I have a science background.

"Time and Time Around and Settlement 864 are science fiction books and Opaque is an action adventure."

■ SUCCESS AT LAST . . . Susan Gee pictured at home with some of her previous rejection letters.

Picture: Keith Heppell 533809

The books cost £2.80 each and part of that goes to Susan.

But she said: "It's not about the money, it's about the recognition."

She said she is already working on another book as she juggles her time between work and writing.

Police ask teens to help with their inquiries

BY John Morgan

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

YOUNG people across Suffolk are being urged to have their say on policing in their area.

Suffolk Police Authority would like anyone aged between 13 and 18 to take part in a new online survey to find out how safe they feel, and whether they have been the victim of crime or bullying.

The information will be used to help improve the service offered by police and to ensure policing efforts are focused on the things that really matter to young people across the county.

Thirty-eight upper and high schools have already been contacted asking for the opinions of their pupils, who have been given the added incentive of the chance to win an iPod by taking part.

Nick Francis, consultation co-ordinator, said: "We are always looking at ways to reach more people from all walks of life and all ages – everyone's opinion counts and we want to ensure we are reaching all audiences.

"Our initial response from schools has been positive, but we would like all young people from across Suffolk to take a couple of minutes to take part in this survey.

"We want to find out what really affects them, what their issues and concerns are and how we can improve the service we give."

The young persons survey is available online at either www.suffolk.police.uk or www.suffolkpoliceauthority.org.uk

Satirical songster spears the egos

MUSICAL satire maestro Mitch Benn headlines the latest Jesterlarf Comedy Club at The Junction in Cambridge tomorrow.

A regular on Radio 4's The Now Show and BBC 1's The One Show, Benn has made a name for himself as the UK's foremost satirical songwriter. Using his musical talents to spear the egos of politicians and celebrities alike – James Blunt is a regular target – he has become a stalwart of the comedy circuit and a favourite on the website YouTube.

As well as recording six albums and touring with his group The Distractions he has performed at comedy shows from Hong Kong and Singapore to South Africa.

Support comes from George Egg – assisted by his big bag of silly props – as well as dark humourist Stuart Black and John Ryan is on compere duties.

through to the heats of Bury Sound 2008.

On the bill for the second heat are The Breach, blues rockers from Hempstead who were finalists in the Saffron Walden Battle of the Bands; Spitfire John, a rocky-pop trio; Federal Black 40, another Haverhill rock band who have supported a number of well known groups; and Amberlight, a Haverhill rock group formed in October 2008. Event organiser Nick Keeble said: "What's great about this event is the way it allows local groups to showcase their talent and who knows what successes they'll have in the future?"

"The first prize is the chance to make a CD in a recording studio, plus a gig at the Arts Centre, so this could be the start of something big." The Haverhill Rock Competition is sponsored by Haverhill Town Council as part of its Leisure for Young People Programme. Doors open at 7.30pm, tickets cost £4 in advance and £5 on the night.

No unaccompanied under-14s will be admitted and proof of age may be required.

Why it's a great time to 'Buy A Car'

IN the wake of the news that we are – and have been for six months – in a recession, there is a smidgeon of good news from the UK motor industry.

The "Buy A Car" campaign, initiated last week by the industry magazine AM, has gathered momentum and dealers are reporting a slight improvement in business performance for the first few weeks of the year, buoyed mostly by an upturn in demand for nearly new and pre-registered cars.

Because of a combination of interest rates close to record lows, cashback offers, VAT at 15 per cent, 0 per cent finance deals and falling residuals, consumers are now realising that there has never been a better time to buy a new or used car.

The Buy A Car campaign was launched at the beginning of the year by AM magazine and many UK dealers have responded with their own local publicity campaigns. Dealers are sending out their own press releases regarding the bargains to be had and placing campaign posters in showrooms around the country.

Stephen Briers, editor of AM, comments: "At a time when the headlines are full of gloom and redundancies, we're pleased – delighted in fact – that our campaign is having such a positive impact. Many businesses in the motor industry have decided to endorse and back the Buy A Car campaign. Retailers like Vertu, Inchcape, Marshall, Peter Vardy and Sandcliffe, as well as car makers like Kia, Jaguar and Citroen, and suppliers like parkers.co.uk, Auto Trader, Justgood cars.com and Car Care Plan have all added their support."

Marshall Motor Group is one dealership that has seen record levels of interest in the last few weeks. Dash Gupta, Marshall's chief executive, said: "We are seeing record levels of interest, especially for 1-2 year old cars. Some of the deals available on pre-registered cars are unbelievable. We're selling delivery-mileage Vectras for £10,000, which is less than they went on sale for new 11 years ago."

Fiesta ECONetic is 'greenest family car' of all

THE Ford Fiesta ECONetic has arrived in dealership showrooms with a growing order bank in place for what is the UK's greenest family car, according to independent analysts.

The all-new Ford Fiesta – December's top-selling car – is the latest to benefit from the ECONetic package of extra fuel efficiency refinements already available on Focus and Mondeo.

For the Ford Fiesta ECONetic, modifications include lowered suspension, aerodynamic body styling and a gear change alert. Together these help to lower fuel consumption to 76.3mpg and CO₂ emissions to 98g/km.

Since the all-new Ford Fiesta went on sale in October, interest in the range's most frugal variant has soared, with more than 500 Fiesta ECONetics already ordered by customers.

The ECONetic's subtle but effective efficiency refinements achieve unrivalled fuel economy and emissions. Debuting on Fiesta ECONetic is a "smart" gear change indicator in the instrument panel which senses the way the vehicle is being driven – taking account of road gradient, vehicle load and individual driving style – to signal the optimum change point.

Automotive environmental specialists, Cleangreencars.co.uk, confirmed that the Ford Fiesta ECONetic is the UK's greenest family car. Publisher Jay Nagley said: "Cleangreencars.co.uk welcomes any car that sets a new benchmark for the industry. That the Fiesta ECONetic does so without any loss of driving pleasure makes the new model doubly welcome. Of the 3,600 production models ranked by CO₂ on Cleangreencars.co.uk, the Ford Fiesta ECONetic comes out top among five-seater cars."

■ THE FORD FIESTA ECONETIC... ECONetic option is proving to be a winner for Ford.

The arrival of Ford Fiesta ECONetic continues a series of low CO₂ model launches initiated by the blue oval in 2008. Since the launch of Focus ECONetic last January, the Mondeo ECONetic went on sale in July and a Ka ECONetic has been announced for 2009. Ford has a total of 51 models emitting under 120g/km CO₂.

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF)

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before its recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility.

YOUTH FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

Boyce strike wakes up the rusty Hawks

Hundon Hawks 6 Spartak 78 2

CAMBRIDGE & DIST COLTS LEAGUE, UNDER-16B

IN only their third league game in three months, Hawks finally got back to winning ways, but not without a few alarms on the way.

Having given Spartak a goal start in the first five minutes, Hawks' lack of activity showed in the first half-hour as they struggled to mount a threat on bottom-of-the-league Spartak's goal.

Despite plenty of possession, Hawks created only one chance and then fell further behind as Spartak scored on the break.

Going two down seemed to rouse Hawks and, in the last five minutes of the half, a determined run and finish from full-back Tom Boyce, followed by an excellent finish by Tom Lock brought Hawks level.

The second half was a completely different story as Hawks poured forward and further goals from Lock, Robinson, Martin and Alex Wheeler reflected the difference between the two sides.

St Ives Rgrs 6 Grampian Gunners 2

CAMBRIDGE & DIST COLTS LEAGUE UNDER-15A

THE scoreline suggests that Grampian took a good beating, but nothing could be further from the truth. The visitors totally dominated the opening 20 minutes and should have been ahead.

But a 45-yard free kick somehow undid the Gunners and two more before the break put the home side in control.

The second half saw two goals for the Gunners, the first from leading scorer Luke Halls and the second a header from Jacob Brown from a Luke Youngs cross.

Unfortunately, there were three more goals the other end.

Withersfield 3 Histon Hornets 0

CAMBRIDGE & DIST COLTS LEAGUE UNDER-12A

BOTH sides started well, with some tough tackling, before Withersfield took advantage of the wind to open the scoring on 14 minutes.

A well-organised Histon side were a constant threat so the nerves were nicely settled when Joe Baker added Withersfield's second, and Liam Santry added a deserved third in the dying moments.

West Wrattling 3 Burwell Tigers 0

CAMBRIDGE & DIST COLTS LEAGUE KO CUP, UNDER-12

AFTER a goalless first half, a partnership between Scotton and Stevenson up front for Wrattling proved fruitful, Scotton fired home to open up a 1-0 lead.

Soon Cooper added a goal with a thumping strike to make it 2-0, and Bush wrapped up the scoring at 3-0.

Wrattling meet Priory Parkside in the quarter-finals.

Haverhill Rov 1 Cambridge Musk 1 (Musketeers win 6-5 on pens)

CAMBRIDGE & DIST COLTS LEAGUE KO CUP, UNDER-16

ROVERS kicked into a very strong wind in the first half, and managed to keep Musketeers at bay.

And it was the hosts who scored first against the wind, when some good work down the right-hand set up a cross which Young headed home.

Musketeers kept coming forward and only some great saves from Sweeney saw Rovers stay in front at half time.

In the second half, Rovers pushed for more goals with the wind at their back, but Musketeers equalised.

Both sides then went for the win, but there were no more goals in normal time or in the extra periods.

After five penalties apiece, the teams still could not be separated, and it was only in sudden-death spot-kicks that Musketeers emerged the winners.

TABLE TENNIS

Battling Haverhill on song with shock win

HAVERHILL stunned high-flying St Ives with a 6-4 victory in Division One of the Cambridge & District League, despite Reuan Williams recording a maximum for Saints.

A very strong NCI team whitewashed St Ives 10-0, while defending champions St George's seem likely to retain their title after recording a comfortable 9-1 victory over struggling RCG Stapleford. Good all-round performances helped Soham beat Impington 6-4 and Over 6-4, which has helped their chances of avoiding relegation.

In Division Two, St Neots continued their march towards promotion with a 9-1 victory over Haverhill II and look likely to go through the season unbeaten.

Although Liam Mohan won his three singles, promotion hopefuls Soham II were held to a 5-5 draw by Impington II. Another 5-5 draw between NCI II and RCG Stapleford II saw man-of-the-match Sid Dunster beat Tony Comisky in five sets.

In the inter-club match between St George's III and St George's II, the former emerged 6-4 victors.

Top-of-the-table Impington III maintained their position in Division Three with an emphatic 8-2 success against Cambridge IV. Over III and Priory recorded 10-0 wins over CIBA to keep alive their promotion prospects. In Division Four, St Ives VI earned a good draw against Over IV thanks to a maximum from Steve Budd, backed up by two wins from Pat Nicholson.

Promotion-contenders Sawston thrashed two-man St George's IV 10-0 and NCI IV recorded a useful 7-3 success against Basingbourn.

St Ives V improved their promotion credentials with an emphatic 10-0 win over lowly Impington VI.

Results - Division One: St Ives 0 NCI 10, Impington 4 Soham 6, St Ives II 4 Haverhill 6, Soham 6 Over 4, St George's 9 RCG Stapleford 1.

Division Two: Impington II 5 Soham II 5, NCI II 5 RCG Stapleford II 5, St George's III 6 St Georges II 4, RCG Stapleford 6 St George's III 4, St Neots 9 Haverhill II 1.

Division Three: Impington III 8 Cambridge IV 2, CIBA 0 Over III 10, Priory 10 CIBA 0, Soham III 5 Over II 5.

Division Four: St Ives VI 5 Over IV 5, St George's IV 0 Sawston 10, NCI IV 7 Basingbourn 3, St Ives V 10 Impington VI 0.

Fletcher strikes in draw

NST Strikers A 1 Grampian Gunners A 1

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-10A

GUNNERS came away with a hard-earned point in a game of few chances.

Westley, Robson and Hall went close for the Gunners in the first half, while goalkeeper Jones played well and the back line of Farrow, Woodley, Beeston and Goodwin all put in good work to keep Strikers down to minor chances.

With a few minutes to half time Fletcher shot home to give the Gunners a lead at the break.

The second half was very much of the same with defences stopping any good chances, but with 10 minutes left Strikers slotted home a corner routine to make it 1-1.

Bumpstead Dynamos B 0 Grampian Gunners B 3

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-10B

A FINE display by Bumpstead's goalkeeper kept the score of this one-sided match down to three goals.

Grampian, playing up the slope in the first half, had most of the early chances, the best coming from a long-range shot by Sean Gage which was heading for the top corner before a brilliant save by the keeper.

After 15 minutes the pressure paid off as a corner from the left by Sam Law rebounded out to Scott Parsons, who scored with a low shot into the corner.

Shortly afterwards, a goal kick was intercepted by James Austin, who coolly slotted home Gunners' second.

The second half again had Grampian with most of the play but some resolute defending and good saves reduced Gunners to only one more goal, scored by Gage after a goalmouth scramble near the end.

Walpole 1 West Wrattling 0

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, UNDER-11 KO CUP, SECOND ROUND

TACKLES flew in from all directions as both teams wanted to win.

Man-of-the-match Fera and Schiller were immense at the back and keeper Wiffen also showed safe hands.

Various combinations of the midfield - Ellam, Gibbs, Bishop, Horsley, Carpenter, Whitrid and Murphy, outfought and outplayed the hosts on many occasions.

Up front, Ripp and Harvey tested Walpole's keeper a number of times, but a pulsating first half ended goalless.

The second half was the same, Wrattling winning plenty of possession, but not quite able to score the goal they deserved.

The hosts scored after 15 minutes, which at the end proved to be the match-winner.

Haverhill Rov 1 Grampian Gunners 6

UNDER-11 FRIENDLY

GRAMPIAN started very positively, with Jamie Lingard firing over the bar and Toby Daley hitting a shot into the side-netting, before captain Jason Moore saw the keeper save a curler from outside the box.

Just after halfway through the first half Grampian forced a corner which Lingard took, and Mitchell Forshaw pounced on a loose ball and shot across the keeper into the goal.

Grampian then started to take control of the midfield, with Ashley Wyatt finding Jack Ferguson, who turned smartly and lobbed the keeper to give Grampian a two-goal lead at half time.

Grampian continued to push from the restart and Ferguson drove in a rocket shot to double his total.

Rovers continued to attack but were unable to penetrate the Grampian defensive line of George Mustoe and Bailey Cassidy.

Grampian keeper Lewis Knightly then started what was the best play of the game by taking a goal kick to Moore, who then passed to Forshaw, who spread the ball wide for Lingard to beat a defender before crossing for Josh Mathewson to tap home.

Man-of-the-match Aaron Thorne then lobbed the Rovers defence, allowing Lingard to sprint through and score a well deserved goal.

Rovers then mounted a sustained attack and Knightly was unable to keep out a driven shot, before Ferguson completed his hat-trick from the edge of the box.

HAVERHILL'S Caroline Wright was among the titles at the Cambridge & District Table Tennis League's annual tournament in Soham's Ross Peers' Sports Centre.

THE chance teaming of Don Simpson and Mich Calmet proved inspired as they won the Daily Mail Foursomes competition at Haverhill.

Simpson's partner dropped out at the last minute, so he teamed up with Calmet, and they shot 68 to win by half a shot.

Dareagh Whelan and Dean Cornelius were second, having edged out Gordon Price and Derek Thomas on countback after both pairs shot 68½.

Sue Carr won the Silver Division of the January Medal with 86, three in front of Pat Kennedy.

Jackie Condon took the honours in the Bronze Division with 75, making her the overall winner. Gerry Wheatley was second with 76 and Pauline Calmet third with 85.

RUGBY UNION

Captain seeks better fortunes

HAVERHILL skipper Paul Bergin hopes his team can get revenge over Southwold on Saturday after they lost 31-3 to their Suffolk rivals in Eastern Counties Two at the weekend.

Nick Ager's penalty was the hosts' only score, and the captain felt the away side's pacy wingers were the difference.

Bergin said: "We took Southwold on up front and maybe even dominated in the forwards. But they thoroughly outpaced our backs and did some special things out wide.

"We're playing them at home again on Saturday in the semi-final of the Suffolk Plate, so hopefully we'll get a big crowd supporting, and we feel we can beat them."

FOOTBALL: LATEST NEWS FROM HAMLET CROFT

■ GUEST SPEAKER . . . Peterborough United director of football Barry Fry, who will be at Rovers' Sportsmen's Dinner.

It's a week of frustration as weather derails Rovers bid

HAVERHILL Rovers were left kicking their heels this week as the blast Siberian of weather took a firm grip on the Ridgeons League, Premier Division programme. Peter Betts' team were without a scheduled fixture on Saturday, but their frustration was added to on Tuesday when their match with high-flying Needham Market was postponed, due to snow and ice on the pitch at Hamlet Croft. Manager Betts and his charges must now look towards Saturday's match at fellow strugglers Woodbridge Town as they look to pull away from the foot of the table. Victory at Woodbridge would see Rovers pull to within two points of their opponents and considerably enhance their chances of pulling away from the relegation zone. ■ Barry Fry, Peterborough United's colourful director of football, will be the guest speaker when Rovers hold a Sportsmen's Dinner on Friday, April 3. The event will take place at Haverhill Golf Club in Coupsals Road. Tickets are £35 each and tables can be booked. Please contact Ted Beavis on 07850 301335 for further details and booking. Tickets are also available from Rovers' Hamlet Croft clubhouse on match days. ■ There will be free admission for Rovers' Ridgeons League, Premier Division match with Ely City at Hamlet Croft on Friday, February 13. The match will be followed by a race night in the clubhouse.
